Star of the web series, Stella Valentine, was in the spotlight recently when she kicked off the Kickstarter campaign for her new original fiction, The Dressed. Raised under the watchful eye of an abusive guardian, the teen girl protagonist (who is not based on anyone in particular) was on the verge of being forced into a life of prostitution as a means of survival. The Dressed turns the tables on this standard storyline, exploring love and loss in an unconventional manner. The creator, Angelica Sanchez, is a self-professed introvert that loves the more passive side of society, but was thrust into the opportunity to make her first web series by a friend. It was a learning experience, but with social media being the primary form of communication in the digital age, she would be able to reach more people and make more friends. Her first choice of genre was comedy; she said that she had been told she needed to write an online sitcom to understand the audience. At the time, she was a freshman in high
